Summit Partners Acquires ABILITY Network for $550 million

Transaction Overview

- On April 7, 2014, ABILITY Network was acquired by Summit Partners for $550 million in a majority recapitalization
 - The acquisition represents the largest healthcare IT transaction, by dollar amount in the first-half of 2014
 - The additional funding will enable ABILITY Network to accelerate its product development and expand its technology platform
- The investment represents one of Summit Partners' largest healthcare transactions to date
- In 2011, Bain Capital Ventures and Lemhi Ventures invested $27 mm in ABILITY
 - Following this transaction, Bain Capital Ventures will remain as an investor partner in ABILITY
 - ABILITY management and Bain Capital Ventures are rolling over an unspecified amount of their investment in the company as minority shareholders

Transaction Commentary ⁽¹⁾

- “ABILITY’s phenomenal growth proves they are delivering innovations that truly respond to the needs of the health care industry. We look forward to helping them take their exciting vision to a new level” – Darren Black, Managing Director, Summit Partners
- “This is a very exciting, significant step that Summit Partners is taking with us. It confirms the course we’ve been on for the past few years, and validates the contribution to innovation and services ABILITY has brought to the healthcare industry” – Mark Briggs, CEO, ABILITY Network
